Forecast for Monday 26 Jul 2021

Weather: Overnight mist and low cloud across the east of the region dispersing in the morning. Otherwise many ranges will see some warm sunshine, a few afternoon thundery downpours possible around Ben Wyvis and the great Glen. Some low cloud may lap on to the lower slopes around coastal ranges from Skye north to Cape Wrath.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 70%

Visibility: Poor in low cloud below 500 metres along western coastal ranges, and also in the east at first. Otherwise generally good. Becoming rather hazy in any heavy afternoon showers in the east.
